Hospitality Pillows

Pillows and pillow protection are key to providing guests with a good nights sleep. But why pay a fortune? From the basic to the best, choose from a variety of fill weights and fabrications. And protective covers help protect that investment. Rest assured there is an option for all levels of luxury.

Gold Choice Pillow

Made with extra hollow siliconized fiberfill inside for a luxuriously lofty pillow and meets the 22 oz. fill weight specified by many hotel franchise properties.

Ultra Down Pillow

A true alternative to natural fill, guests will enjoy this luxury pillow made with corded piped edges and micro-denier polyester.

Platinum Choice Pillow

A resilient pillow with down-like comfort and durability, the premium polyester fibers and siliconized finish prevent flattening and matting.

Zippered Pillow Protector

Protects an expensive pillow investment and provides guests with a restful nights sleep.

Classic BedBugSafe™ Encasing

Bed bugs, mold, allergens, and germs cannot pass through these water resistant bed and crib mattress encasings. Each is crafted with the BedBugSafe™ closure, premium rustproof zippers, and reinforced seams.

Luxury Pillows

Triple Sheetting 101

1. Cover the mattress with a fitted sheet or flat sheet and tuck on all sides
2. Add the second layer by placing the top hem of a flat sheet so it is even with the top of the mattress
3. Layer a lightweight blanket approximately 6" below the top of the mattress
4. Place a decorative top sheet over the blanket so the top hem is even with the top of the mattress
5. Fold both flat sheets down about 6" followed by an additional 6" fold to include the blanket
6. Finish the look by tucking everything beneath the foot of the mattress and tailor the sides, accessorize with cushions and bed runners for a fresh, modern flare

McCormick Collection Terry

Made of 100% cotton, the McCormick Collection boasts luxurious qualities with superior loft and hand, brilliant whiteness, and touchable plushy softness. Increased laundry production through savings on labor, utilities, and linen replacement are additional benefits when compared to a standard terry towel. All pieces are constructed with an elegant mini check border.

Royal Collection Terry

When only 100% pure cotton luxury will do, towels from the Royal Collection are durable and long lasting. The decorative dobbie border adds a simple touch of class and elegance to this touchable soft and brilliantly white towel collection.

Gold Collection Terry

Classic and sophisticated, towels from the Gold Collection will add a subtle stylish touch to any bathroom decor. With a blended construction of durable 86% cotton and 14% polyester blend and 100% ring spun cotton loops, guests will enjoy a softer and smoother towel every time. All pieces are constructed with a beautiful and decorative dobby border.

Kings Row Collection Terry

Towels from the King's Row Collection are made with a durable 86% cotton and 14% polyester blend construction and 100% ring spun cotton loops for a softer and smoother hand. A simply designed checkerboard dobby pattern brings forward a feel of beauty and class.

Cam Collection Terry

The Cam Collection features simply timeless terry towels for all day, every-day use. The 86% cotton and 14% polyester blend means durability and longevity for the best value possible. All pieces have a classically designed Cam border.

Spa/Hand Towel

This durable and absorbent hand towel is made of 100% cotton for a luxuriously soft feel with added function. It perfectly suits the needs of luxury bathrooms, spas, salons, and much more. All towels are made in the USA from low lint, super absorbent huck or AB fabric.
