Take a look at what the experts say...

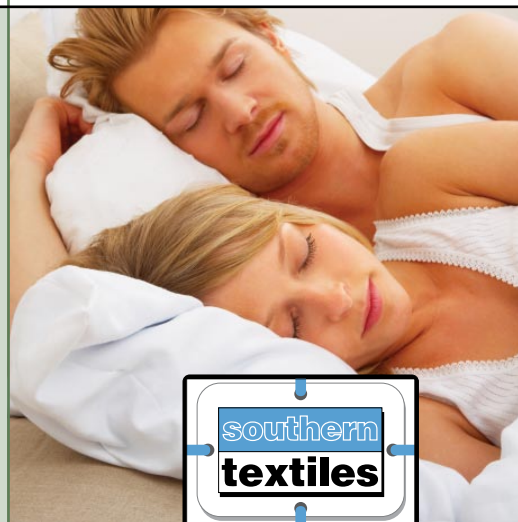

According to the Harvard School of Public Health, a favorite hiding spot of bed bugs is your mattress. Further stated, special mattress bags, like the Invisicase Surround Protector from Southern Textiles, ensure that bed bugs will not inhabit or lay eggs in your mattress.

"I've been in the pest control business for 31 years and have seen the insidious nature of bed bugs. I protect my family with an Invisicase Surround Mattress Protector from Southern Textiles, the only company I trust for superior quality."

*Jeff Dean, Owner-Operator
